St. Lucy's Church

In the Heart of the Near West Side

MARCH 18TH & 19TH, FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight."

To conclude our evening, Jim Steeves, former coach here at Lucy's shared some beautiful & challenging thoughts on facing the many occasions that would cause them harm.

"Be the best you can be"

Our basketball coaches, Joe Mc Ginn & his brother Kevin along with Marty Murray who served as the coordinator of the basketball program sponsored a free basketball night along with pizza & drinks to celebrate another successful season. These good men along with Sr. Patricia have been faithful in ensuring that this important program continues year after year. Thank you our good people for the time, interest & love you have given to our youth.

Raymond with Lucy at last Sunday's Mass.

In Today's gospel, Jesus said, " I am the light of the world". Jesus is the source of guidance for our journey and the light toward which we travel in life. We have to allow the light of Christ to shine through us for others to see and hear, so that they may see the light of God in their hearts.

"Do Palestinians Have a Right to Defend Themselves?"

Special Public Lecture on March 22nd at 7pm with International human rights lawyer Jonathan Kuttub, co-founder of Nonviolence International and Executive Director of Friends of Sabeel North America (FOSNA). Kuttub practices law in the US, Palestine and Israel, serves on the Board of Bethlehem Bible College and is President of the Board of Holy Land Trust. He is co-founder and board member of the Just Peace Advocates. He was the head of the Legal Committee negotiating the Cairo Agreement of 1994 between Israel and the PLO.

The event will be held in All Saints church, 1340 Lancaster Ave., preceded at 6:30pm by an interfaith prayer service combining prayer of the three tradition of the Book: Judaism, Christianity and Islam. The church is wheelchair accessible and hearing-loop equipped.

The program will be live streamed at allsaintssyracuse.org.

The lecture is sponsored by All Saints Parish. For more info, etc. please contact: Mary Kuhn at 315-569-5726.

Liberation for All: Combating Anti-Semitism and All Hate Sunday, April 2 - 4-5:30 pm ArtRage Gallery, 505 Hawley Ave.

As we prepare for Passover — our celebration of liberation from slavery in Egypt — Syracuse Jews for Peace invites Central New Yorkers to join us for an educational event to learn about this important holiday and reflect on rising anti-semitism in the United States and elsewhere.

We will share our vision that safety and security for Jews is deeply connected to the fate of all people who are targeted for hate and oppression. There is no liberation in isolation; it must be a collective struggle. The event will feature speakers, songs and a brief ritual involving eating Matzoh and some traditional Passover foods.
